Taste Information

It has an orange blossom aroma, but the rich fruit jam notes come from the sun-dried coffee in Master Origins Ethiopia with dry processed Arabica. Continually hand-turning the coffee cherry to ensure even drying calls for great care. And Ethiopian farmers have used this method for longer than anyone else. If you like milk and coffee, try Master Origins Ethiopia with dry processed Arabica with milk froth to make a cappuccino. You'll find all the delicate floral notes still smoothly dancing through this cup of coffee with milk.

The Story

This is Ethiopian Arabica at its finest - decadently aromatic.
