Taste Information

An intense long black coffee with a distinctly lingering aftertaste with roasted notes and a thick coffee crema. Pairs perfectly with milk that enriches the blend with brown caramel notes.

The Story

A blend of Nicaraguans washed Robusta coffee beans and Latin American Arabica. Thick with roasted notes and a lingering finish. The Arabicas get a darker roast to lower the acidity and bring out that brown sugar aroma. While the Nicaraguan coffee gets a longer roast to develop the Robusta coffee beans' bold and bitter notes.

Intenso is created by combining Latin American Arabicas with Nicaraguan Robustas.

The Arabicas get a darker roast to lower the acidity and bring out that brown sugar aroma. The Robustas get a longer roast to develop bitter notes and a lingering aftertaste.
