Taste Information

The Nicaraguan Arabica gives Odacio its soft and solid cereal note. We daringly blended in a touch of Ethiopian Arabica - it adds a splash of acidity and delicate fruitiness. We split roast the coffees in this Vertuo coffee pod. A long and light roast for both coffees develops the body and structure and keeps the acidity and aromatics intact. Odacio brings a fullbodied cereal note and then dares to surprise you with its flourish of fruitiness and delicate acidity at the end. It's bold and it's lively and it hits your palate with great elegance.

The Story

Why we love it: Odacio's a lively and intense Vertuo coffee.
