The Story

Here's the most intense Vertuo coffee in its Gran Lungo size - Fortado. Its Indian Robusta comes at you in full force, and cocoa and oak wood notes emerge from the Latin American Arabicas.

We chose high quality washed Latin American Arabicas and blended it with a naturally processed Indian Robusta for its high-end quality, intensity and full body.

First, a long roast at medium temperatures brings out the intensity in the Indian Robusta, without any harshness. The Arabicas then get dark developing rich cocoa and wood notes.
