The Story

Known for tea, the Japanese also have a real affinity for coffee. Striving for sophistication and natural sweetness, they love both a rich coffee and a balance of elegant aromas. Tokyo Lungo captures the essence of these preferences with refined Ethiopian and Mexican Arabicas.

Floral notes and delicate acidity coming from the lightly roasted Ethiopian Arabica contrast beautifully with the rich flavours of Mexican washed Arabica.

Ethiopian beans go through a fast roast that preserves acidity and the flowery notes, while Mexican beans are roasted longer to develop its intensity.
