Taste Information

This blend brings you Cape Town's taste in coffee. With South Africa as a stopping point on the old trade routes, Asian coffees shaped local taste over time. World Explorations Cape Town Lungo reflects this preference with a blend of Indian Arabica and Robusta. It results in our most intense Lungo – full-bodied and with a punchy bitter note and woody aroma. Enjoy it like a local: Add a splash of milk to your long cup and experience the silky texture.

The Story

A deep-roasted, intense, and full-bodied cup with a woody aroma and punchy bitterness reminiscent of the Robusta cargo that shaped Cape Town's taste in coffee.
