Taste Information

High up above 1000 meters – even up to 2100 meters – and, tucked into the slopes of the Andes, we found them. The organic processes passed down from generation to generation, this coffee is blessed with the meticulous care of smallholder farmers. Peru Organic is split roast to reveal both the bright, juicy acidity and the elegant fruity notes accented by a smooth toasted cereal note.

The Story

Why we love it: We traveled across remote Peruvian regions in search of the finest organic certified Arabica coffee beans.
