Taste Information

A highly roasted blend of both Arabica and Robusta, that gives to Double Espresso Scuro a smoky character with dark cocoa and subtle vanilla notes. Pairs perfectly with milk.

The Story

Double Espresso Scuro is a highly roasted blend of Robusta and Arabica - all Central American coffees. The Robusta is from Guatemala and the Arabica is Costa Rican. And it's the Robusta in this Nespresso Vertuoline double shot that helps it pack a double enjoyment.

This intense blend is created using Robustas from Guatemala and other origins, in combination with Arabicas from Costa Rica.

We separate Robustas and Arabicas but give them both a full roast to develop the intense cocoa notes and the smoky character of this coffee.
