Taste Information

You'll taste the audacious bitterness and peppery notes leaping out through the thick syrupy body. Together the Arabica and Robusta balance each other out in this espresso. It reflects both the Palermo coastal lifestyle and its rich history. You can sit back in the sun and enjoy your Kazaar on the terrace, with everything from the food on your plate to the architecture surrounding you whispering the histories of all who've passed through Palermo.

The Story

A long, dark roast inspired by the union of Sicilian coffee artistry and African and Arabian heritage is guaranteed to spice things up.
