Taste Information

Stockholm Lungo is a coffee with sweet cereal and malty toasted notes that lies beneath a ■veil of acidity and lively bittereness. ■ Paired with milk, this coffee reveals additional sweet biscuit and toffee notes.

The Story

Swedes are among the world's biggest coffee consumers. Wander around Stockholm, and you'll often find intense black coffees with a malty savoury note coming from the distinctive Monsoon Arabica. Stockholm Lungo recreates the aromatic profile of a Swedish coffee by coupling Monsooned Malabar with Colombian Arabica.

A rich combination of beans coming from Colombia, Costa Rica and India, with the later undergoing a particular monsooning process that defines this coffee's sensorial profile.

The Monsooned Arabica gets a darker roast to enhance its body and cereal notes. A lighter roast of the washed Colombian coffee means all the classic finer aromatics stay in balance.
